THE MEMPHIS AVALANCHE

DAILY AND WEEKLY FOR 1868

PRICE REDUCED FROM JUNE 1, '68

We are the political and personal foe of the party or the man who advocates the doctrine of negro supremacy or negro equality. The carpet-bag adventurers who, by controlling the negro vote hope to get into office, and by usurpation, by partial legislation and by force intend to perpetuate their power, we will, as heretofore, denounce as enemies of the white race, to be despised and excluded from all political and social intercourse. We are for a white man's government, to be controlled by white men, and by none others. General GRANT will be the candidate of the Radical party for President, pledged to the support of negro equality in the North and negro supremacy in the Southern States, and pledged to the doctrine of high protective tariffs, and redemption of the bonds of the United States in gold.

The WEEKLY AVALANCHE is not inferior in size, appearance or variety of news and editorial matter to any Weekly in the South. The exciting events of the coming Presidential canvass, the villainy of Radical tyrants, and the acts of scalawags will be carefully recorded. Each number will contain a complete history of the preceding week. We have special correspondents in all directions, and our facilities for making a first class newspaper are unsurpassed.

Having reduced the rate of subscription from Four to Two Dollars, it will enable every one to read the WEEKLY AVALANCHE.

We ask the people of the South to give us such encouragement as their circumstances will permit, and we will continue to put forth our best efforts to stay the floods of political corruption, to hold up to scorn and contempt carpet-baggers, scalawag adventurers and the usurpations and villainy of Radicalism.

MISSISSIPPI ABLAZE.

Rousing Conservative Mass Meetings at Corinth and Iuka.

Old Tishomingo Wheeling into Line and Will go Against the Constitution.

Speeches by Governor Humphreys, Col. Hooker, Major Falconer and Captain Townsend.

Special Correspondence Memphis Avalanche.]

IUKA, MISS., June 9, 1868.

A large and enthusiastic meeting composed of the most prominent men of North Mississippi, assembled at the court house in Corinth to-day and listened for hours to the most thrilling and enthusiastic oratory on the existing and all-important issues now pending in this State, the result of which will seal the weal or woe of a brave people. I witnessed there what I have not witnessed since the close of the late unhappy struggle for Constitutional freedom.

In that meeting was every age, and rank, and sex. The young men of the country who fought nobly for the cause of the South were there. Gray-headed sires, tottering with age and care, with trembling lips and tearful eyes, were there. Fair ladies, who, when war's fierce alarm was sounded, bade their husbands, and sons, and lovers, and brothers go forth to battle in the cause of freedom, were there in their beauty to assist, by their presence, in the glorious struggle against Radicalism, now so fully inaugurated.

The first address was delivered by the Hon. B. G. Humphreys, the present nominee for re-election to the office of Governor. It was replete with sound argumentative facts concerning the malicious designs of the Radical party, and fully exposed the means by which the carpet-baggers are attempting to secure the power of the State. Colonel Hooker, Attorney General of the State and a candidate for re-election, was then introduced to the audience by Colonel Inge, and in a most thrilling, eloquent and powerful speech of two hours, charmed the attention of the large crowd present, and in a masterly manner presented, in glowing colors, the great issue at stake, the magnitude of the struggle, and the great importance of defeating the Constitution. During the course of his speech he was repeatedly applauded, and often his eloquent voice was drowned amid the cheers of the enthusiastic audience. He pointed out the monstrous clauses contained in the monstrous document called a constitution; the nefarious designs and schemes of the Radicals as seeking to secure to themselves the control of the State Government; clearly demonstrated the fact that the white people of the South were the only true friends of the negro, and closed by paying a beautiful and touching tribute to the heroes of his adopted State—Mississippi—whether dead or living, and made an irresistable appeal to his countrymen to rally once again to the standard of their noble old State, whose escutcheon was still bright and untarnished. Tears were seen trickling down the wrinkled cheeks of old, grey-headed fathers, whose sons are now slumbering beneath the sod of their native South, who fell in the fierce storm of battle, and sank to rest unshrouded, unconfined and unknelled, but whose glory still lives and is still growing brighter and brighter, unto the perfect day.

At the close of this eloquent address, a murmur of applause passed through the entire assembly, and Colonel Hooker retired.

Colonel Kenloch Falconer, Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor of this State, was then introduced, and in a short but telling and forcible speech exposed Radicalism in all of its abominable features, and urged the people to defeat the Constitution. His address was all that could be desired, and had a splendid effect in awakening the people to their duty.

In the evening, Colonels Falconer and Townsend sent an appointment to this place, and though only two hours' notice was given, quite a crowd had assembled in front of the Iuka Springs Hotel, about dark, to listen to the speeches of the gallant standard bearers, whose reputations are so well known.

Colonel Falconer delivered the first address, and for two hours riveted the attention of his hearers, and, as usual, covered himself with honor. He thoroughly ventilated and dissected, at considerable length, the mongrel Constitution. He assured the audience that there never was a time in the history of the State when the people were so united, so determined and so fully awake and thoroughly aroused and effectual, as at present, and appealed to them to continue the struggle so gloriously begun.

Colonel Townsend, the gallant standard-bearer of the first Congressional district, was then introduced, and made a powerful and stirring speech, which was received with marked attention and universal enthusiasm. The speaking continued until a late hour at night, and the greatest harmony and union prevailed.

Tishomingo is all right, and will roll up a majority of at least two thousand against the constitution. The Democracy is gaining ground every day, and is enthusiastically confident of a glorious victory on the 22d of June. We cannot close without paying our respects to the carpet-baggers and dirty scalawags whose names now appear on the negro-Radical ticket in this district. Major Wofford, now in opposition to Colonel Townsend, is a Southern man by birth and by education. He served for four years with distinction in the Confederate army. He was at one time a member of General Stephen D. Lee's staff, and was afterward connected with Withers' artillery regiment, and was promoted for gallantry on the field. Here we would fain drop the curtain, for the record is bright and untarnished. When the South was overpowered, when her armies were disbanded, when defeat and humiliation stared her in the face, when she was in her darkest hour of trial, her own sons, who had vindicated her prowess on a thousand well fought fields, deserted her! He spurned her in her hour of need and allied himself with her alien enemies, and is now working to degrade the people whom he once defended; and for what? A poor, pitiful, paltry office. "How are the mighty fallen!" Contrast his character with that of Colonel Townsend, who fought four years in the Federal army, but who, at the close of the war, laid aside his arms and went to work to assist in rebuilding the fallen fortunes of the brave people against whom he had fought for a principle he believed to be sacred. One is a true, whole-souled, noble-hearted patriot; the other a mere demagogue, who would sell his soul for the favor of an iniquitous party now in power.

We will next notice Mr. Jamison, Colonel Falconer's opponent. He is a lean, hungry, raw-boned, empty-handed scalawag, who once claimed to be a Southern man, and owned several negroes and, if it can be said, was educated at the South Carolina Military Institute. He now boasts that he wants no white votes, and cares nothing for them.

Flournoy, prospective Radical candidate for United States Senator, comes next. He is also a Southern traitor. Only yesterday, in a speech delivered at Holly Springs to an audience of one thousand negroes, he declared "that he hoped to live to see the day when black ladies and white ladies would walk the streets of Holly Springs arm in arm; when the children of the two races would attend the same school and study from the same books, and when social equality would be fully established." This is the language of an acknowledged Radical leader, and is only a piece of their policy.

This morning a carpet-bagger, the exact counterpart of "Brigadier General Winfield Jerusalem Smith," and who rejoices in the sobriquet of Patterson—a brother, perhaps, of Billy—came to grief in the following sad manner. While at the breakfast table in the Scruggs House, at Corinth, he very politely and with good intentions told Captain Barksdale, of Jackson, Mississippi, "that he lied," whereupon the Captain let fly a chair at his meek head and literally smashed him up. Patterson smiled sadly, and only remarked, "why, Captain, you are green." Captain Barksdale was willing to let bygones again, which Patterson did not object to, but was prevented by his friends. The colored troops surnamed "sobby." I am under special obligations to Major Scruggs, of the "Scruggs House," at Corinth, and the proprietors of the Iuka Springs Hotel at this place, for courtesies and favors secured at their hands.

I go from here to Jackson, Tennessee, and may write you from that point.

"HIAWATHA."

Emigration.

"EMIGRATION AGENCY" OFFICE,
MEMPHIS, TENN., June 1, 1868.

The South, possessing as she does in such munificence the natural advantages of her climate, soil, forests and minerals, and in the number and extent of her navigable waters; and in the bounty, variety and great value of her agricultural productions—need we despair of the future? Shall we not rather cease to repine over the past and awake to a glorious destiny that awaits her, with the blessing of God, upon our diligent, earnest and persevering use of the means? Doubting, despondent man wake up!! Be patient! be hopeful! Work in earnest and in due season you shall reap the reward! Consider. Think you for a moment that such unparalleled advantages will long escape the keen eye of interest?—will go long unimproved?—that our dear "sunny South," whose products once in time, as if with a magic wand, wielded the commercial power of the whole world—that not only gave birth to but supplied the rich sustenance and substance that gave, in the short space of two score years, such monstrous and gigantic proportions to a commerce rightfully and proudly boasting of "sails covering every sea"—we repeat, can they long remain neglected?—will they be consigned to oblivion? can the world afford it?

If, in her halcyon days, the South was regarded as the proud and envied mother of the infant whose swaddling clothes seemed scarcely to have been shed ere it was elevated and firmly enthroned a king, with imperious hand levying tribute of all nations, should we not take courage? If the products of the labor of her two millions of indolent slaves exercised such potent and wonderful influence upon the great interests of finance, commerce and government, how long do think will survive the tremendous shock of events, that have so well nigh dried up the fountain of their life-blood? If, in other days, and in the practicing of a system of cultivation the most reckless and exhaustive to the soil, and of habits of the most reckless expenditure and wanton waste, affluence and luxury did abound, and great, wealth spring like magic from the generous soil of these hills and plains, who can estimate the stupendous and incalculable results of the introduction of twenty, ten, or even five millions of sturdy, industrious, economical, well-skilled and thrifty people of the Old World, to aid us in the resuscitation of, and in giving full development to, her immense resources?

As the product of the tillage of the soil is the very foundation of the great superstructure, and we are already in possession of so large advantages to begin with, why not set about now the work of securing the only two requisites remaining that lie within our reach, and the only hope of an early and permanent recuperation of the South and of a certain restoration to her of her rightful sceptre—viz: Labor—Capital? Reduce the immense landed estates all over the country, by careful and accurate sub-division of each into small tracts—each small lot with all the appliances and advantages within itself of a snug and comfortable agricultural home—with an abundance of skillful and reliable labor, and a judicious distribution of sufficient capital to sow and reap and grow and embellish, and how long before would abound prosperity unbounded?

Do you ask can this be done? Is not all this an idle dream, in our present impoverished and dilapidated condition, and with all the prejudices (unfounded and unjust as they may be) entertained by the masses of foreign population toward us and ours? I say now, practicable in each subdivision all the requisites for a distinct home. Number each subdivision successively, and accompany this map with a minute descriptive list of the whole tract; the State, county and location; distance from railroad, nearest depot and town; school and church facilities; the character and condition of such improvements as may be upon the place; character of soil, and its adaptation to what variety of crops best adapted; the average quantity in yield, per acre, of cotton, corn, wheat, oats, barley, sweet and Irish potatoes, beans, peas, garden vegetables, etc; grazing or cattle and stock ranges; mill sites or manufacturing privileges; mineral advantages, and whatever other matters may afford the advantage of such correct and reliable information upon which to base the preparation of plats on the most equitable and satisfactory terms to all parties concerned.

Second Requirement—A plain and distinct proposition in writing, giving the very lowest price and best terms upon which you authorize us, by your power of attorney appended to same, to so dispose of said lands—said power of attorney binding you to confirm and seal with your signature such transactions, at any time that we may make known our readiness to comply with the terms of aforesaid proposition.

Third Requirement—The certificate of the proper county official that such property as may be so offered is free from incumbrance.

Fourth Requirement—To enable us to meet the expenses of traveling, advertising, publications, etc., we shall require at least a deposit of ten cents per acre (10c) upon all such lands at the time of entering them in our office.

In order to the observance of the greatest uniformity in the maps, papers, etc., and that we may the more readily secure and retain copies of same, we will endeavor to arrange with some reliable stationers in Memphis to procure and keep supplies of suitable material.

We earnestly request the immediate attention of those interested, but not with such haste as to disregard the requirements above given, as we are desirous and trust to be able to place a large and attractive list of lands before the people of Europe by the first of September—which, however, forward at once, such as may prefer it.

General Buford's race horses were levied on at the Buckey Course, near Cincinnati, on Friday, upon the complaint of a Cincinnati policeman, named Homer, who put in the ridiculous charge that one hundred and twenty-six dollars had been taken from him by Buford's men, who stopped the boat on which he was a passenger down the Tennessee river, in 1864.

The next session of the National Typographical Union will be held at Albany, New York. The returns show 6,909 members, 321, 565 85 received, with $1,516 50 per capita tax.

The negro, Andy Williams, who murdered Adolph Deutsch, near Chattanooga, several months ago, has been sentenced to be hung at Harrison on the 12th of July.

BY TELEGRAPH.

FRIDAY'S NOON DISPATCHES.

BOSTON, June 12.—The house passed the bill to erect a bridge to connect this city with East Boston, over the Governor's veto.

The appropriations of the Massachusetts Legislature for the present session, including $5,000,000 for the Hoosick tunnel, amount to $8,617,000.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Chilian advices state that the frontier is being fortified, and that twenty-five Chilian soldiers had been massacred by the Indians.

St. Domingo dates of May 30th, state that the revolution is steadily gaining ground, and Salnave found himself cooped in his capital, and abandoned by Minister DeLorme, who escaped to England. Incendiary fires are very frequent; and the foreigners attribute them to the President's vindictiveness, as he has repeatedly threatened to burn the town rather than allow the rebels to have possession of it. Ex-President Cabral had reached Jacmel, and was actively supporting the rebel cause.

The Tribune states that O. N. Cutler, who is mentioned as the successor to Commissioner Rollins, was present at the interview of Senator Henderson with the Missouri delegation, when he made the following remarks:

"Gentlemen, will it not be a great deal better for the Republican party if the President should be acquitted and a new Cabinet appointed, composed entirely of Radicals; and that Senator Henderson have control of the Federal patronage of Missouri?" To these propositions several members of the delegation replied that it was impracticable. Senator Henderson and Cutler rejoined, simultaneously, that it could be done. This is sworn to by several persons. Cutler was formerly a cotton agent by the appointment of Fessenden.

The Tribune says bids for carrying the overland mails were opened yesterday, by which it appears that Wells, Fargo & Co., who have been the contractors for the last four years, have lost all the contracts, they being the highest bidders.

SATURDAY : : : : : JUNE 13, 1868

THE Republican party which elected LINCOLN and JOHNSON has no existence to day, any more than the old Whig party of 1852. It has been changed into the present Radical faction, and in this change all its decency, honor, patriotism and ability have been driven into the Jacobin concern. ANDREW JOHNSON, SEWARD, CHASE, DIXON, DOOLITTLE, TRUMBULL, FESSENDEN, HENDERSON and FOWLER cannot associate politically with BUTLER, STEVENS, LOGAN and BROWNLOW. It would be the greatest violence to their sense of decency, and would demand the sacrifice of their self-respect. The true Union men of Tennessee have at heart abandoned this mongrel carpet-bag faction. They have seen, as the AVALANCHE has seen—as we all now see—that the present dominant faction is destitute of honor, principle or ability. Its leaders are adventurers, or rampant secessionists suddenly converted, who are ever ready to abandon every principle, if they have any, to subserve their own private ends. BARBOUR LEWIS in front, BEAUMONT at the tail, with stupid, fragrant negroes, sandwiched between, constitute the rank and file of the Radical faction in Shelby county. LEWIS himself would desert to-day, and retire to some of the peaks of the Big Horn mountain, far from Cheyenne, if he could only carry with him a carpet-bag stuffed with the warrants and bonds of poor tax-ridden Shelby county. In Middle Tennessee the leaders of this mongrel faction were blazing, roaring secessionists, who howled for the dissolution of the Union, for the massacre of the Yankees, and for a war of extermination. In the hour of trial and danger they deserted their cause, put on the uniform of so-called loyalty, that they might trade in cotton permits, traffic in contraband articles, and rob their neighbors under illegal imprisonment orders. Give us an honest Union man, or a Federal soldier who was true to his colors—with them we have not only no quarrel to settle, but will shake hands in eternal peace. Against the miscreants, camp followers, tax-title thieves, carpet-bag adventurers and deserters, who would clothe the negro with the robe of full citizenship and strip white men of all rights of liberty, property and franchise, we wage relentless war. The domination of these scoundrels will soon end. Negro power will pass away; carpet-baggery will go with the present crop of caterpillars and locusts. It would violate every sentiment of honor, every dictate of justice, every rule of good manners, every impulse of humanity, every element of manhood, for a man of decency, respectability or talent to continue his political association with men who are lost to all sense of honesty. BUTLER, STEVENS, and LOGAN are the acknowledged leaders of the Radical party. The first a thief, the second a miscegenator, and the last known in Illinois as "Dirty Work LOGAN." Descending to the tail of this hideous political monster we find throughout the Southern States such creatures as GILL and WORFORD, of Mississippi; SNOW and RICE, of Arkansas; APPLEGATE, of Alabama; PARROTT, of Georgia; and in our own State, that compound of leperous and unsightly flesh, BARBOUR LEWIS, ARNELL, STOKES, sugar-coated TOM HAMILTON, poor FIELDING HURST, and a thousand more scattered over the State running the gauntlet of kicks and curses, and cowering under the scorn and loathing of an outraged and indignant people.

"ZOUNDS, I am afraid of this gunpowder, PERCY, though he be dead!" It seems that the great Democratic Convention which lately assembled at Nashville, could not pass over the dead body of secession, without, like FALSTAFF, giving the fallen HOTSPUR "another stab in the thigh." Why is it that we are so constantly called upon to announce a historical fact? Were there any in this Convention who expect to claim a "dukedom" for this unnecessary stab? or are we expected thus, by indirection, to condemn ourselves and stigmatize the principles for which we fought? Are the rights of the State for which the old Democratic party contended, and which, in the terse language of Mr. JEFFERSON, embraced the right to judge, "not only of infractions of the Constitution, but of the mode and measure of redress"—to be frittered away into a vague and undefined myth, described as "a large mass of residuary rights." We are in doubt whether this action of the Convention was taken to appease the people of the North or to glorify those of the South who were originally opposed to secession. As an original secessionist we are willing to abide by and acquiesce in the judgment pronounced upon the late "wager of battle," but in case the American people should grant a new trial in the case, either by ballot or bullets, we do not wish to be estopped by any unnecessary admissions. We, therefore, regret the passage of the first resolution in the Nashville Convention, and we are not willing to admit that those who fought for the South, believing secession to be wrong, are entitled to any more credit than those who fought, believing it to be right. We fought the battle of Liberty together then, and we are willing now to fight for the freedom of the white man together with those who believed secession to be wrong; but we are unwilling to march with them, without protest, under a banner which bears upon its folds a rebuke to us.

WE have had, during the last three years, what JEFFERSON called the unction, the holy oil with which the Democratic priesthood has always been anointed—slander and detraction without stint. But what care we for the calumny of thieves and scalawags when we have the friendship, sympathy and applause of all whose good opinion is worth coveting. What we most desire is the respect and esteem of honest men, and what we next most ardently crave is the defamation of the bad, the curse and imprecations of the villains who are plundering the people and the maledictions of the despots who are trampling upon liberty and the Constitution. And we are happy to say our ambition has been gratified, for while slander has been busy with our name, good men have protected us with the impenetrable shield of truth and friendship. If we had any vanity to gratify we could fill our columns with valued compliments from every section of the Union. But we place such a high estimate upon the good opinion of JOHN MULLALY, of the Metropolitan Record, that we trust the reader will pardon us in transferring to our columns the following handsome but unmerited compliment:

There is no paper North or South that has stood up so unflinchingly in the very teeth of despotic power and denounced in fierce and burning words the encroachments of Radical usurpation, as the Memphis AVALANCHE, of which our esteemed and respected friend, the fearless, the indomitable and true-hearted Colonel Gallaway is editor. No man in the ranks of journalism wields a more scathing and more powerful pen, and there is none who is more feared by the scalawags and scoundrels who have so long tortured and afflicted the noble Commonwealth which gave a Jackson and a Polk to the Republic, but which is now crushed under the fiendish rule of the monster Brownlow. Had Gallaway's bold line of policy been adopted by that class who sought in a timid, yielding and weak-kneed Conservatism, relief from their troubles, they would now be in a different condition, politically and otherwise. They have, however, been taught a lesson which we trust will not be without its effect. We take the following from the prospectus recently issued, and trust that the largest measure of success will reward the editorial labors of our esteemed friend.

We are also under obligations to our friends of the Paducah Kentuckian for their good opinions. We accept these encomiums as a large recompense for whatever of calumny and reproach we have endured for the last three years, because of our war upon fanatics, thieves and tyrants, and because of our adherence to great principles, and a course of policy which, in our conscience and judgment, we believed would bring peace—speedy, immediate, honorable PEACE—with all its blessings, and which we sincerely regarded as essential to the restoration of the Union and the best interests of this bleeding and distracted country.

We publish on the first page of to-day's AVALANCHE an article on the subject of Emigration from Mr. W. B. DONOHO, one of our old merchants, of the highest integrity and indomitable energy. We ask the readers of the AVALANCHE to give Mr. DONOHO's circular a careful perusal, and bespeak for him the support of the Press and the railroads. We are gratified that Mr. DONOHO has taken hold of this great enterprise, in whose hands we are confident success will be certain.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Senate committee on the bribery of Senators will examine witnesses to-morrow. They design making a thorough investigation, and will call for all evidence elicited by the managers of the House. It will appear in evidence that several Radical Governors were active in attempting to secure conviction.

The vote taken in the House on the postponement of the tax bill is considered a test. The result determines a protracted session, and the impression now prevails that the House friends of the whisky thieves, knowing the bill cannot possibly pass, will refuse special legislation in whisky and tobacco, so all will fall together as the Senate will not consider the tax bill this session. The whisky ring has shrewed friends in Congress.

You were advised some days since of the great pressure to remove McCulloch. The President has tendered the position to Mr. Groesbeck, who has the matter under advisement.

The President will send in a communication for Commissioner of Internal Revenue during the week.

After Butler's defeat to-day, when the House refused to postpone the tax bill, he was outspoken and violent against the course of the majority. He said their duty now was to prepare for the political canvass, get Southern States in and fix up the right kind of tricks to win. The tax bill was of slight importance compared therewith.

The President is certainly considering the suggestion of friends who urge Cabinet changes. If made at all, it will be consummated before the fourth of July.

There are good reasons to hope for an amnesty proclamation before the fourth of July. Ad interim officers are the order of the day. A mayor of this description is to be appointed by the Conservative council.

Fortieth Congress---First Session

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, June 12.

Mr. Morton, from the Committee on Foreign Affairs, reported a joint resolution, requesting the President to intercede with the Queen of Great Britain, to secure the speedy discharge of Rev. John McMahon, convicted of treason and felony, and now confined in Kingston, Canada West, which was passed.

Mr. Harlan, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported, with an amendment, the bill to regulate the Coniested Election in Washington, and urged its immediate consideration.

Mr. Henderson objected, and the bill went over.

Mr. Edmonds introduced a bill in addition to the act to regulate the time and manner of holding elections for Senators in Congress.

Mr. Hendricks, from the Committee on Public Lands, reported a bill to aid in the construction of a ship canal between the Mississippi and Lake Michigan.

Mr. Conness called up the bill in relation to the Western Pacific railroad companies, in relation to the company to occupy for a depot, store houses, etc., such portions of Yerba Buia or Goat Island, in the Bay of San Francisco, as may be necessary.

After some discussion it was laid aside.

At the expiration of the morning hour and on the motion of Sherman, the bill supplementary to an act to provide a National currency, secured by a pledge of United States bonds, and to provide for the circulation thereof, approved June 3, 1864, was taken up.

The question was on the amendment by the Finance Committee. The first amendment was to add, after the limitation restricting the liabilities of individuals, companies, etc., for money borrowed of the National Banking Association, applicable to deposits made by such associations with private bankers, brokers or banking associations not included under the National Currency act. The second amendment provides that within ninety days after a notice of a note to be liquidated for the share holders of the National Banking Associations. It shall pay the amounts of its outstanding notes into the United States Treasury and take up its bonds, otherwise they are to be sold as public auction in New York, and the surplus to be paid to the officers of associations already in liquidation under such circumstances, and also pay it over in thirty days, under the same penalty; and the notes are to be redeemed at the United States Treasury, and the associations to be discharged from their liabilities.

It was amended, on the motion of Mr. Howard, by making the section at the Stock Exchange, and adopted.

The third amendment provides for a compensation to associations of National Banking Associations of three per cent. on the first $100,000, one per cent. on larger sums, not exceeding $200,000, and one-half of one per cent. on sums over $200,000. The collection to be paid out of the receipts from the one-half of the commissions to be withheld at the discretion of the Controller, until the affairs of the bank are closed; and receivers are to be considered Government agents and having the right to bring suits in United States courts, the District Judge fixing the fee for such services.

Mr. Sherman moved to reduce the per centage named from three per cent. on $100,000 to two per cent. three cent per cent on sums under $500,000 to one half of one per cent, and from one-half of one per cent on sums exceeding $500,000 to one-quarter of one per cent. It was supported by Mr. Conkling and opposed by Messrs. Sherman, Cattell, Williams and Morton, and adopted by the following vote:

Mr. Sherman moved to amend by inserting after the word may, authorizing the receivers to bring suits, etc., and may invest the assets of the bank in the bonds of the United States, when the affairs of the bank are not in liquidation, which bonds shall be deposited with the Treasurer of the United States, subject to the order of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the receiver shall be responsible to the Controller of all their acts and proceedings, and the Controller shall require such bonds from time to time, in proportion to the dividends and payments provided in the fifteenth section of the act to which this is supplementary.

The amendment was agreed to, and the section as amended also agreed to.

On the last amendment to increase the National currency circulation by the sum of $50,000,000, to be confined to the States and territories having a circulation of less than $5 for each inhabitant.

Mr Wilson moved to amend by inserting after the words the following: "The sum of $100,000,000, and in issuing the said circulative notes the preference shall be given to the Banking Associations in the States and sections of the country not adequately supplied with banking facilities, but wherever the amount of United States notes and circulating notes of the National Banks combined, shall be in excess of $350,000,000, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and required to retire and cancel the United States notes to the extent of such excess, until the whole amount of United States notes outstanding shall be reduced to $250,000,000; and that for the purpose of facilitating the resumption of specie payment, the interest received by such banking association on the bonds deposited with the Treasurer of the United States by such banking associations, shall be held as a reserve fund, until said banking association shall redeem, in coin, the currency issued by it, and the said specie reserve fund shall be used for no other purpose than for the redemption of said currency.

Mr. Morrell, of Vermont, opposed it, and moved to add a proviso that the Secretary of the Treasury shall be authorized to withdraw an equal amount of United States notes. A long discussion followed.

HOUSE.

The Speaker said he had been requested to present to the House, and as the matter appeared to be National in its character, he did present, an invitation from the Executive Committee of the National American Sharpshooters to attend a public demonstration and festival, which is to take place at Jones' Woods, New York, from June 27th to July 6th.

Mr. Judd moved that the invitation would be accepted, and moved that the House be represented at the opening ceremonies by a committee of five members.

Mr. Stevens, of Pennsylvania, said he hoped it was not as very bad practice to teach people to shoot sharp. The motion was then agreed to.

The Speaker appointed the following members to represent the House: Messrs. Judd, Garfield, Paine, Chanler and Orth.

Price introduced a bill to relieve T. J. Mackey, of South Carolina, from his political disabilities. Referred to the Committee on Reconstruction.

Mr. Bingham, from the Reconstruction Committee, reported back the Senate amendments to the act to admit certain States to representation in Congress, with a recommendation that the amendments be concurred in.

Mr. Bingham said he desired a speedy decision of the House on the bill, and he would therefore move the previous question, but he would first ask his colleague, Mr. Spaulding, whether he desired to offer his amendment now?

Mr. Spaulding—"Yes, I move to strike out Alabama from the bill."

The following is the bill in full:

An Act to admit the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida to representation in Congress.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida have, in pursuance of the provisions of an act entitled "An act for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 22d, 1867, and the acts supplemental thereto, formed constitutions of a State government, which are republican in form, and have adopted said constitutions by large majorities of the votes cast at the elections held for the ratification or rejection of the same. Therefore be it

Resolved, That each of the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Georgia, Alabama and Florida shall be entitled and admitted to representation in Congress as States of the Union, when the Legislatures of such States shall have duly ratified the amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by the Thirty-ninth Congress, and known as "article 14th," upon the following fundamental conditions:

1. That the constitutions of neither of said States shall ever be so amended or changed as to deprive any citizen or class of citizens of the United States of the right to vote in said States who are entitled to vote by the Constitution thereof, hereby recognized, except as a punishment for such crimes as are now felonies at law, whereof they shall be duly convicted under laws equally applicable to all the inhabitants of said States; provided, any alteration of said constitutions, prospective or in effect, may be made with regard to the time and place of residence of voters; and the State of Georgia shall only be entitled and admitted to representation upon this further fundamental condition: That the first and third subdivision of section 17 of the fifth article of the constitution of said State, except the proviso to the first subdivision, shall be null and void, and that the General Assembly of said States, by a solemn public act, shall declare the assent of the State to the foregoing fundamental condition."

2. That if the day fixed for the first meeting of the Legislatures of either of said States, by the constitution or an ordinance thereof, shall have passed, or so nearly arrived before the passage of this act that there shall not be time for the Legislature to assemble at the period fixed, such Legislature shall convene at the end of twenty days from the time this act shall take effect, unless the Governor elect shall sooner convene the same.

3. That the first section of this act shall take effect as to each State, except Georgia, when such State shall by its Legislature duly ratify article fourteen of the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the thirty ninth Congress, and as to the State of Georgia, when it shall in addition give the assent of said State to the fundamental conditions hereinbefore imposed upon the same; and thereupon the officers of each State, duly elected and qualified under the constitutions thereof, shall be inaugurated without delay; but no person prohibited from holding office under the United States or any State by the section of the proposed amendment to the Constitution of the United States, known as article fourteen, shall be deemed eligible to office in either of said States, unless relieved from his disabilities as provided in said amendment; and it is hereby made the duty of the President within ten days after receiving official information of the ratification of said amendment by the Legislature of either of said States to issue a proclamation announcing that fact."

Mr. Spalding said, in view of the fact that both branches of Congress had voted in favor of admitting Alabama, he withdrew his amendment.

After some debate, the motion to exclude Florida from the Omnibus bill was defeated—yeas, 45; nays, 99—and the Senate's amendments concurred in.

The bill now goes to the President for his signature.

The vote on its passage was: Yeas, 111; nays, 28.

By the unanimous consent of the House, and at the suggestion of the Speaker, the National Sharp Shooting Committee was increased from five to seven, and Messrs. Robertson and Knott were added to it.

Mr. Selmack, at the suggestion of Mr. Robertson, reported from the Ways and Means Committee a joint resolution remitting the duties on certain articles contributed to the National Association of Sharp Shooters, to an amount not exceeding $10,000, which was passed.

About half-past two o'clock, Saturday afternoon, three young men, Francis Burlew, Anthony Lenton, and William Stricker were drawing a seine in the Little Miami river, at Red Bank, seven or eight miles from Cincinnati, when one of them was seized with a sudden cramp, and, deprived of the use of his limbs, floated out into the stream. His companions swam out to rescue him, but they too were chilled in the effort to reach him; and just as they turned to gain the shore their strength forsook them and they all sank and were drowned. Their bodies were swept off by the current and have not yet been found. Stricker was a single man; Burlew leaves a wife and an infant, and Lenton a wife and two children.

In Chicago, in 1864, Hiram W. Woodbury, aged sixteen, married a girl one year his junior. The wife last week was granted a divorce on the ground of adultery and brutal treatment, and the custody of their two children was awarded her.

A French naturalist asserts that the trunks of trees are always flattened in the northerly and southerly direction, and expand in an east and west place, and these facts he connects directly with the movements in rotation of the earth.

THE MONROE STREET AFFRAY—DEATH OF CAPTAIN PERRY.—The particulars of the affray in Yesterday's issue, on Monroe street, Wednesday night, in which Captain Perry, of the Second District Police, was shot by a negro burglar named Sam Moody, have already been published. The wounded negro, upon being removed to his residence on Allen avenue, received the best of medical attention and nursing. Doctors Kimbro and Quinby were called in, and did everything in their power to dissipate the fatal effects of the shot in vain. For several days he seemed to improve, and his family and friends began to entertain strong hopes that he would recover. He again grew worse, however, and yesterday afternoon death terminated his sufferings. Captain Perry was an old resident of Memphis, and a member of the police force before the war. At one time he was Lieutenant of the organization. Soon after the Metropolitan police succeeded the old force he was appointed Sergeant, a position he held until Captain Simons resigned in order to accept the Captaincy of the first district. He was promoted to the latter place, which he filled until receiving the wound which caused his death. Captain Perry was one of the most efficient officers ever on a Memphis police force. He was steady, energetic, and a terror to evil-doers—never stopping to count the odds when in the discharge of his duty. His death is an irreparable loss to the force, and will be sincerely mourned by all who knew him in life. He will be buried from the residence, No. 2 Allen avenue, at five o'clock this afternoon, the police force turning out in force. We are requested to invite his friends and acquaintances.

A SPLENDID BILLIARD SALOON.—The admirers of the beautiful exercise of billiard-playing will be pleased to learn that the popular Crystal Palace Billiard Saloon has been recently refitted, etc., and will be opened this evening. It has passed into the hands of Mr. Joseph Longinotti, who has spared neither pains nor expense to render it worthy of the title of the most elegant billiard saloon in Memphis. The tables are new, of the Brunswick patent, the saloon having both carom and pocket tables. The rooms are cool, and attached is a saloon, from which are furnished the finest wines, liquors, ale, and all the other delicacies of the season. Those desiring to play will be accommodated by the best of our amateurs. It will commence at eight o'clock. The entrance to the saloon is through the ally, nearly opposite Odd Fellows' Hall.

TWO DAILY MAILS TO NEW YORK.—For several months great complaint has existed in consequence of mail irregularities between this city and New York. To remedy this, Colonel Gist, under instructions from the post office department, will henceforth, commencing to-day, send two mails daily to New York, one by the Memphis and Louisville and the other by the Memphis and Charleston route. One will close at noon, and the other at three p.m. This will be a great convenience to our merchants.

A CARD.—The conduct of Mr. Thomas T. Kirtland in St. Louis, in forwarding a draft on the firm of Kirtland, Pollard & Co., renders it proper for me to state that the same was dishonored, as the city papers show, on the 20th ultimo, by the withdrawal of the undersigned, the firm not having been in existence since that date.

SHELBY COUNTY MATTERS.

A Call for the Revival of the Shelby County Agricultural Association.

The Imperative Necessity of Such a Course—for our Agriculture and Mechanics Act.

When the war stopped in and to a great extent paralyzed civil pursuits in the Southwest, the Agricultural Society of Shelby county was making rapid advances. It had already become the pride of its citizens and the public—from year to year its gatherings our annual exhibitions grew with the prosperity of the country until reaching a point of successful rivalry with those of older and richer organizations. The fair given in 1860 will be remembered by all who visited the spacious fair grounds during the week. It was attended daily by thousands, comprising almost every class of citizens. Everything pertaining to the exhibition was managed splendidly; and the displays, not only of stock, but of vegetable productions, mechanics, arts, etc., would have made favorable comparison with many colossal exhibitions under the auspices of State organization. People began to feel a deep interest in these annual displays. They were an incentive to the stock raiser to improve his stock; to the agriculturalist to increase the efficiency of his system of tilling the land; the mechanic's inventive powers received a new impetus; the artist felt a new pride in preparing the labor of his brain and hands for their niche in the fairs. There was no interest—agricultural, mechanical, scientific, artistic or otherwise, that did not receive an infusion of new vigor from the efforts of the society to encourage all of them.

The war commenced, and since 1860 Shelby county has known no such thing as an Agricultural and Mechanical organization. The sound of bullets and the pieces of heavy ordnance seemed to crack it, as to the earth; and in struggling to build their fortunes our people have taken no steps toward reorganizing the old society, or forming another on its ruins. Apathy has succeeded the enthusiasm of only eight years ago, and the neglect is now rarely discussed, even by those then most interested in it. It is high time the matter were again receiving attention. The old President of the Society, Colonel John Pope, has gone to meet the reward of a well-spent life; but nearly all the other gentlemen prominently identified with it are spared. Colonels M. D. L. Stewart and W. R. Hunt, Major John F. Treesvant, and others, are here, and no doubt ready and willing to contribute their energy and experience to a revival of the old organization, or form another on the same plan. In behalf of the various interests to be benefited, we urge them and their brother citizens to embark in the cause, as well as all interested, to take some decided step in this direction. It may be necessary to make small beginnings, as before; but that is no reason why so important a matter should be neglected. We should be pleased to hear from some of our friends on the subject. Agitation is what will most speedily bring the public mind up to the working point.

Methodist District Meeting and Sunday School Convention.

SECOND DAY.

The Methodist District Meeting assembled yesterday morning according to adjournment. Quite a number of new names were added to the roll. Unexpectedly, the Rev. Bishop McTyeire had arrived in the city, having concluded to pay this visit, as on account of the strike on the Mobile and Ohio railroad he could not fill an appointment to attend a district meeting now in session at Mayfield, Kentucky. The Bishop's arrival was hailed with very great pleasure, particularly as he is well known to be one of the best executive officers in the church.

The religious devotions were conducted by Bishop McTyeire; and, after some business of no public importance, verbal reports were requested by the Bishop in reference to the spiritual and temporal condition of the church in the several circuits and stations. These reports were exceedingly interesting, and particularly so, because they took the form of questions and answers—the Bishop inquiring very closely and critically, not only as to the state of the church, but also as to the modes of procedure adopted for the furtherance of the great cause of religion in the different departments of christian effort. While the sum of the reports revealed deficiences, with a necessity for improvement, there was also much ground for thankfulness in view of the past and encouragement for the future.

The morning's session was almost entirely filled up with the reports, though a few other brief addresses, on topics immediately associated with the work of the Church, were made by Bishops McTyeire and Andrew. The remarks of the latter, now "in age and feebleness extreme," were peculiarly affecting, and brought to mind the picture of the beloved St. John, whose simple and earnest exhortations to the brethren, in his old age, are among the most pleasant and precious memories of Christendom.

There were not many citizens, either ladies or gentlemen, in attendance on the district meeting, the impression having obtained that the exercises were not open for the public; nevertheless, a resolution was adopted inviting and welcoming visitors.

The district meeting adjourned with the benediction, to convene this morning, at half past eight o'clock.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The Sunday School Convention met pursuant to adjournment, at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, Bishop McTyeire in the chair. Religious services were conducted by the Rev. Samuel Watson.

Inquiries similar to those made in the district meeting were proceeded in reference to the Sunday School work in the Memphis district. The reports were highly gratifying, showing a very marked increase of interest in this work, and a large addition to the number of Sunday school children. Several subjects of importance were discussed briefly, but with animation and zeal. It is quite obvious that the members of the Convention are deeply concerned in the improvement of the Sunday School in its relations to the future progress of the church; and doubtless very great benefits will grow out of the consultations and discussions of the Convention in this vein.

It was announced that Bishop McTyeire would preach to-night at Asbury Chapel.

The Convention adjourned to meet this afternoon at three o'clock.

MEMPHIS FEMALE SEMINARY COMMENCEMENT. The second annual commencement of the Memphis Female Seminary was held on Thursday night, at the rooms of the Institution. The large hall of the Seminary was crowded with patrons and friends, who listened to the essays and music which constituted the chief attraction. The "Salutatory," by Miss Hallie Sevier, was a beautifully written composition, and read in a clear and melodious tone of voice. "Sunlight Thoughts," by Miss Maria Rosser, was a production evincing a serious turn of mind, and no little talent. The "Dream Angel," by Miss Emma Cox, was very pretty as far as we could hear, but losing a sentence or two now and then, broke the connection, so we cannot speak of it as a whole. The "Spirit of the Nineteenth Century," by Miss Mary Mitchell, was a composition worthy of an older head. It showed deep thought and extensive research. It was, indeed, a very excellent production. The valedictory, by Miss Susie Bolling, was a very fine effort. The farewell to trustees, teachers and sister students was very gracefully done and affected many to tears. The only graduate, Miss Susie Bolling, daughter of R. P. Bolling, Esq., was presented an exquisitely handsome gold medal, by Mrs. Haile, in a few beautiful and very appropriate remarks. The diploma was awarded by Dr. John R. Allen, President of the Board of Trustees. The Board was very largely represented on the occasion; we noticed on the stage Dr. Allen, W. B Greenlaw, W. B. Waldran, M. L. Meacham and R. P. Bolling. Dr. Allen made a speech at the close that called forth rounds of applause from all present. This is comparatively a new institution, but it is under the auspices of some of our best citizens, and the teachers are well known as standing in the very front rank in their profession. Our peculiarly favorable view of attending the exercises of this institution, was the ease and elegance of style, the grace of manner and the perfectly composed and confident way that every thing was done. These are highly important considerations in the training of young ladies, and Mrs. Haile possesses these qualities in an eminent degree, and her training stamps them indelibly upon the minds and names of her pupils. The music was very fine—much superior to that heard at school exhibitions generally. The "trio," by Misses Susie and Ella Bolling and Prof. Shilde, was an exquisite performance. We learn from a catalogue before us that the seminary has a patronage of nearly one hundred pupils. Success to it and all kindred institutions.

To the Democratic Press of the Eighth Congressional District.

EDITORS AVALANCHE: Our National Convention meets July 4th. The nominations will be known throughout the country in a day or two, say by the 6th or 7th. I propose to hold a Congressional District Convention at Brownsville, on the 11th, to ratify, and to select a District elector. Catch the ball as it rolls out hot from New York; give no time for it to cool. What say you all, gentlemen?

CAMDEN.

Bishop Andrew, Bishop McTyiere, and Doctor Green of Nashville, will deliver addresses to the Sunday School Convention, to be held in the First Methodist Church, corner of Second and Poplar streets, to-morrow, Sunday, at half past three o'clock. Appropriate singing by the children of the different Methodist Episcopal churches. A cordial invitation extended to all.

A Card from Judge Scruggs.

We publish the following with pleasure, with the explanation that our report was compiled from Thursday's Nashville papers, which should have been correct:

A CORRECTION—Editor Ledger: In the proceedings of the State Convention, as they appear in the AVALANCHE of this morning, is the following: "Judge Scruggs remarked that General Forrest had not been selected by the delegation from West Tennessee. They had already signified their choice to the Convention, and that choice should be respected. He had, however, no personal objection to General Forrest, for whom he had a friendly regard."

The whole thing places me in a false position. I said the delegates from the Eight District Acts selected General Forrest, and their wishes should be respected. I said also that there was no better man than Mr. Bates, of Tipton. He had been my personal friend for many years, but I knew that he did not desire the appointments.

The AVALANCHE will please make the correction. Respectfully,

P. T. SCRUGGS.

AN IMPORTANT MEETING AT ODD FELLOWS' HALL.—Much has been said and written regarding the commerce of our city without any tangible stand point. We now have the pleasure of assuring our readers that, by attending at Odd Fellows' Hall, this evening at half past seven o'clock, an opportunity will be afforded to place in the commercial lap of our city the great coreal trade of the West, as well as to offer inducements to trade in the staples of the South. All parties interested in real estate, merchants, mechanics and laborers, will be greatly benefited by the proposed enterprises.

THE VARIETIES.—If good houses almost uniformly are an evidence of success, Manager Broom is a successful caterer of amusements. The snug little theatre is filled nearly every evening, and the fine programme never fails to interest and amuse. The friends of that favorite vocalist Miss Helene DeVere, will be pleased to learn that she will reappear Monday evening.

THE TOURNAMENT.—The necessary arrangements are being completed to render the forthcoming tournament a grand success. The committee in charge are giving their personal attention to the matter. Tickets are already on sale and can be procured at the book and music stores.

DR. JAMES.—His appointed time in Memphis having terminated, he will in future be addressed at his home office, Nos. 81 and 83 Randolph street, Chicago, Illinois. Read his card in another column. apr13

RIVER NEWS.

DAILY AVALANCHE OFFICE, SATURDAY, June 13.

BUSINESS—WEATHER—RIVERS.

Weather pleasant. The river here rose one inch in the past twenty-four hours, the rise being from the upper Mississippi. The total rise will not be over four inches, as the rivers above are all falling rapidly. The Ohio is falling steadily from Pittsburg to Cairo, with twelve feet in the channel at Cincinnati, and five feet five inches in the canal. The lower Ohio is receding, with a fair stage of water in the channel. At St. Louis the river is falling, with twelve feet in the channel out to Cairo. White river is declining, with eleven feet in the channel to Augusta. The Arkansas is receding, with twenty-six inches in the channel above Little Rock, and three feet scant from Little Rock to the mouth.

ARRIVALS.

Steamer R. E. Lee, Louisville,
" W. A. Caldwell, Arkansas river.
" Belle St. Louis, St. Louis.
" Dexter, Louisville.

DEPARTURES.

Steamer R. E. Lee, Orleans.
" Dexter, New Orleans.

BOATS IN PORT.

W. A. Caldwell, Liberty No. 2, Belle St. Louis.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The R. E. Lee passed down for New Orleans Friday night, well ladened.

The Dexter passed down last night with a fair cargo.

The tow boats Simpson Horner and Stella passed down with tows of coal.

The Argosy, also, passed down with four barges loaded with hay and grain.

The Belle Lee, under the influence of the late swell out of the Upper Mississippi, rose one inch yesterday. The rise will probably be exhausted by this evening, and will have little effect on the river here.

The Atlantic and Mississippi Steamship Company contemplate building at St. Louis a mammoth hull, three hundred feet long and eighty feet beam, for cereals in bulk. The Lady Gay is also to be widened.

The Darling left Cincinnati on Tuesday for Memphis, and will be in port to morrow.

The elegant, swift passenger steamer Liberty No. 2, in command of Captain James Rice, leaves to-day at six p.m. for all points on White river, through to headwaters, connecting at Duvall's Bluff with the railroad for Little Rock and main points on the Arkansas. The Liberty has superior passenger accommodations and is in charge of reliable officers. Milt. Harry, an amiable and clever gentleman, is her chief purser, and is ably seconded by Charley Sharp. The Liberty, including her clerks, is the favorite in White river.

The fine steamer Julia, Captain John Lockhart, will leave the wharf to-day at five p.m. for Vicksburg and the bends. Captain Isaacs, a clever gentleman, is in command of the Julia.

Captain Bancroft, editor of a little Radical sheet published at Duvall's Bluff, Arkansas, was in the city yesterday, and, in company with one of our Radical contemporaries, had a big time with the tyrens of the Varieties Theater last evening. He appeared to be as full of stimulants on the occasion as he is usually full of fun and Radicalism, and was in as happy a frame of mind as he was when, some time ago, he addressed the crew of the steamer Commercial in words commencing: "Fellow carpet-baggers, fellow Africans." So full of good nature is he that we feel constrained to overlook the deformity of Radicalism, and wish him well. For a joke he recently announced himself as a candidate for the mayoralty of Duvall's Bluff, and to his immense surprise was elected, and is now discharging the duties of the office. In addition to editing the White River Journal. The last seen of this doughty mayor-editor was about the witching hour of midnight. His keg was full of lager beer, and he was seated astride it, he chanted the beauties and blandishments of his friends, who pine for his return to the banks of White river.

Any one desiring skiffs for fishing or other purposes, will find good ones at Mr. Lewis', who lands forth near the first mill just above the mouth of Wolf river. They are always freshly painted and otherwise in excellent order, and can be had by the hour or day on moderate terms.

The Indians, Captain Reub. Neal, passed Cairo yesterday morning bound for the Sunny South, and will leave here this morning for New Orleans and way points. She will have a fair proportion of passengers, and all who go with her may rely upon a pleasant trip down the river. She is in every respect a first class packet, and the officers are courteous and agreeable. Mr. Charles Miller, a diamond of the first water, presides in the office, and is ably assisted by his brother.

The splendid light-draught steamer W. A. Caldwell, in command of Captain Rube Haines, is receiving at the wharf for Arkansas river and all way points, and will leave on Monday, her regular day. Captain Jack Chambers, a sociable gentleman, presides in the office.

Mike Keef, formerly mate of the steamer Starlight, was arrested at St. Louis on Wednesday, on a requisition from the Governor of Louisiana, charged with burning that steamer, near New Orleans, in April last. He will be taken to New Orleans for trial. We will keep our readers posted as regards the events.

The Belle St. Louis, Captain Zeigler, leaves for St. Louis to-day, at six p.m. Captain Ad. Storm is her agreeable purser.

The Commercial is due from St. Louis, en route to New Orleans. Captain Lloyd, an efficient officer and clever gentleman, is her chief purser.

The Government tow-boat Gilbert is engaged in removing snags between here and Cairo. She removed one at Bird's Point sixty feet long and four feet in diameter. It had been so long embedded in the sand that she broke her largest chain pulling at it.

Dan Desmoine, well known in river circles, had a rousing benefit at Little Rock last week. Among those who lent interest to the occasion was the man who blows his own horn, and Lieut. Evans, who discoursed eloquently on the trombone.

We have omitted to notice the return from New York of Captain Enoch Taylor, of the Great Western Cotton Express. He arrived home on Wednesday, and looks hale and hearty. During his absence he completed arrangements for direct trade with Europe, and will open the fall campaign by giving through receipts for cotton to Liverpool. Captain Taylor having done his part of the great work it now remains for shippers to do theirs.

The Dee Arc will run on Sunday between Memphis and Mound City, Arkansas, for the accommodation of picnickers and excursionists, and, if desired, make a trip to Plum Island, about forty miles above the city. Captain Elliott will spare neither pains nor expense for the convenience of his patrons.

The tow boat Dick Fulton passed down last night with a tow.

The Belle Lee will be due from New Orleans on Sunday.

The John Kilgour is due from the Ohio.

The Rubicon was overdue last night, bound for St. Louis.

Dick "Appeal" is about to furnish a first-class item by committing hymeneal suicide. The incident that occurred on Sunday may yet and spontaneously in Dick "Appeals."

The White County Record of the 6th, says: "The Memphis Bulletin hoists the two blackbirds, Grant and Colfax, at its masthead. Now that they are playing Radical, we trust our steamboat friends will no longer bring the damnable sheet."

The Cincinnati Gazette of Thursday says:

"Another new boat, to be called the 'Pine Bluff,' is being built at Licking river, near the mouth, from the hull of the Pine Bluff, which was burned near two years ago. Her length from stem to stern is one hundred and thirty feet; beam, twenty-three feet, or twenty-eight feet over all; cylinders, ten and a quarter inches, with four feet stroke. She will only draw about sixteen inches, light. She is owned by J. A. & J. W. Greer, of Covington, and will be completed in a few days. No particular trade has been decided on for her, but there is some thought of running her between Cincinnati and Vevay."

MEDICAL.

TO THE PUBLIC!

The Greatest Discovery Known to the World in Medicine.

The Eureka Life-Blood Elixir

HAS at last made its way into this country, after having been in use in its old world for so many years, and especially in China. The celebrated alchemist and chemist, Dr. Heperdam, of Pekin, China, has at last consented to his great CHINESE REMEDY being introduced on this continent, and has established a factory for its manufacture, under the supplying all druggists throughout the towns and cities of our country. The Eureka Life-Blood Medicine has performed the most astonishing) where every other remedy known in Materia Medica has most signally failed.

IT IS NO HUMBUG OR QUACK NOSTRUM

But is a preparation which has been brought out after many long years of the closest research, aided by the greatest chemical science, and skill that could be brought to bear in its production. We therefore place it wholly

UPON ITS OWN MERITS,

ASKING THE INVALID OR AFFLICTED TO

TRY IT ONCE

To be fully convinced, as its effects are instantaneous from the first dose taken, entering at once into the blood and penetrating every part of the whole body, driving out all impurity from the whole system, and creating instead PURE LIFE BLOOD; hence its wonderful power.

For Sale by all Druggists.

DR. JAMES,

FORMERLY of James' Cook Hospital, Chatom House street, New Orleans, established in 1845, and for the last seven years located in Chicago, and celebrated throughout the country for the successful treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES, can be confidentially consulted at his office and parlors, 81 and 83 Randolph street, corner of Dearborn street, or by letter, Postoffice Drawer 5864.

Dr. JAMES treats CHRONIC MERCURIAL, SYPHILITIC, BLOOD and SKIN DISEASES, and all DISORDERS OF A CONTAGIOUS OR SEXUAL CHARACTER—which he cures in a speedy, safe and effectual manner. Iodide potash, arsenic or any poison, used with his ELIXIR A LIFER, a positive cure for all humors and blood poisons.

CONSTITUTIONAL DISEASES, such as SEMINAL WEAKNESS, NOCTURNAL and DIURNAL EMISSIONS, brought on by the abuses of youth, producing indigestion, dizziness, loss of intellect hereditary, causing loss of memory, confusion, depression, nervousness, loss of energy, indisposition to marriage, and the train of other symptoms, treated and radically cured by an infallible method, saving time and expense. All diseases peculiar to the sexual organs of a private character, radically and permanently cured.

Old diseases of the most horrible class, where the blood has become poisoned, producing ulcerations on the face, small warts, pains in the head and bones, ulcerated throat and nose, sores on the limbs and body, scrofula, together with an almost endless list of suffering indications, are speedily cured.

Dr. JAMES is recommended by the press of the country, by Professors of Medical Colleges, and by the Medical Profession generally. Those in need of suffering should apply to him and be cured at once.

THE MONITOR, by Dr. James, a treatise upon diseases peculiar to the sexual organs of either sex, causes, effects and their remedies, compiled from an experience of twenty years' practice in the United States, Europe and Asia, sent to any address, securely wrapped. Price one dollar. Remittances can be made by mail at our risk. Persons desiring information should enclose a postage stamp for reply, and address DR. JAMES, Post-office Drawer 5864, Chicago, Illinois.
